King of Mykonos to Attend Gold Coast Screening!

Australian comedy icon, star, co producer and co writer of The Kings of Mykonos: Wog Boy 2 Nick Giannopoulos will attend an exclusive advance screening of the film and participate in an audience Q&A session on Monday May 17 at 6.30pm at Australia Fair Birch Carroll and Coyle Cinemas on the Gold Coast! This will be Nick Giannopoulos' only Queensland Q&A event.

Fans and cinefiles can purchase tickets for $12 from Australia Fair cinemas from today (or at www.eventcinemas.com.au with a $1 booking fee) or can win tickets via a giveaway promotion on 102.9 Hot Tomato. Tickets will also be available for sale on the night. The screening is the second quarterly event screening which forms the Gold Coast Film Festival Sneak Peek program and is presented by Australia Fair Shopping Centre, Australia Fair BCC Cinemas and 102.9 Hot Tomato.

The Kings of Mykonos: Wog Boy 2: heralds the return of Steve Karamitsis (Nick Giannopoulos) alongside Frank (Vince Colosimo) in a story that takes our heroes from one Greek paradise (Melbourne) to another (Mykonos) in order to reclaim a family inheritance.

"The Sneak Peek program is an important way for the Gold Coast Film Festival to interact with its members and supporters throughout the year at times other than the annual event. We always try to include special guests at these events and to promote Australian films where possible. This film is particularly exciting to be involved with because the original film The Wog Boy, released ten years ago, was a huge Australian box office hit taking over $13M. I personally am very excited to hear Nick Giannopoulos talk about the journey between the two films over the last decade, to learn what inspired the follow up film and to hear his thoughts on being the creator of one of Australia's most successful film franchises." Casey Marshall Siemer, Festival Director GCFF10.
